

IN THE MATTER OF THE LIQUIDATION OF AMBASSADOR INSURANCE COMPANY
Vermont Superior Court, Civil Division, Washington Unit, Docket S-444-1-83 Wnc

VERMONT SUPREME COURT REVERSES
DECEMBER 31, 2013 FINAL CLAIM DATE ORDER
FOR CLAIMS AGAINST AMBASSADOR INSURANCE COMPANY

You are receiving this notice because the records of Ambassador Insurance Company, in Liquidation, show you were a policyholder or may hold a claim(s) against Ambassador that has not yet been adjudicated or liquidated.

The Vermont Supreme Court has issued a decision reversing a trial court order which had established December 31, 2013, as the last date for submitting to the Liquidator final supporting documentation for all remaining claims against Ambassador Insurance Company. The decision did not create new rights or resurrect any extinguished rights. But, as a result of this decision, the Liquidator will continue to accept "Claim Amendments." Claim Amendments are amendments or documents submitted to perfect timely filed policyholder protection claims that have not already been finally denied or adjudicated. Only persons holding claims that have not been finally denied or adjudicated but were the subject of a timely filed proof of claim against Ambassador Insurance Company may file a Claim Amendment. The Liquidator will now review Claim Amendments that were received by the Liquidator after December 31, 2013. If, in the future, a final claim date is established by the Vermont Superior Court, you will be notified.

A proof of claim is timely filed if it was filed, or was deemed to have been filed, on or before March 1, 1988, the Bar Date previously established by the Vermont Superior Court in the Liquidation Order. Each claimant continues to have the burden to specifically identify the event, accident or occurrence giving rise to a claim, the person or property allegedly injured or damaged, and the nature and extent of the alleged injury or damage.

The Liquidator maintains the following address for receipt of claims related inquiries:

Ambassador Insurance Company, In Liquidation
P.O. Box 40
Montpelier, Vermont 05601-0040

The Liquidator maintains a website that can be found at www.ambassadorliquidation.com and has posted copies of relevant documents there. All Ambassador policyholders, claimants, creditors and other interested parties are advised to review all applicable information and materials and to protect their rights accordingly.
